

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capital
Boise

WHEREAS, since 1899, the Idaho Department of Fish and Game has fulfilled its legislative directive to preserve, protect, perpetuate, and manage the state's wildlife and provide for the citizens of Idaho continued opportunities to hunt, fish, and trap; and

WHEREAS, the Idaho Department of Fish and Game remains committed to wildlife conservation through science-based management under the North American Model of Wildlife Conservation; and

WHEREAS, Idaho's sportsmen and women continue to play an irreplaceable role by funding the agency through the purchase of fishing, hunting, and trapping licenses; and

WHEREAS, the efforts of the Idaho Department of Fish and Game cannot succeed without cooperation and partnerships with sportsmen and women, organizations, industries, landowners, policymakers, and many others; and

WHEREAS, Idaho Department of Fish and Game has remained committed to its mission for 125 years and will continue to professionally manage the state's wildlife for future generations in perpetuity.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRAD LITTLE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim May 9, 2024, to be

A Day to Recognize the 125th Anniversary of the Idaho Department of Fish and Game

in Idaho, and I encourage Idaho citizens to recognize this special observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 9th day of May, in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred forty-eighth, and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred thirty-fourth.

PHIL MCGRANE
SECRETARY OF STATE

BRAD LITTLE
