

Setting Up Your Sportsman's Account on the New Fish and Game License System

It's easy and only takes a few minutes! And once your account is established, you can access it at any time to look up past purchases, buy a license or check your controlled hunt draw results

Before starting, be sure to have your hunting license readily accessible, then go to the Fish and Game Sportsman Portal - <https://idfg.huntfishidaho.net/login>

You'll be directed to this screen...

Under ID type click on the drop down box and select "Sportsman's ID"

In the box to the right, type in your personal Sportsman's ID number. You'll find this nine-digit number right under the bar code on your Idaho hunting license

Fill in the remaining boxes with your last name and birth date. The program will automatically add the slashes between the day, month and year

Then click the "search" button

Your Customer Verification profile will then appear...

A number of features are accessible to you from this page

The screenshot shows the user profile for Joe B Hunter, Sportsman ID: 123456789, with an ACTIVE status. The header includes the Idaho Department of Fish & Game logo and a Home link. Three main action buttons are visible: PURCHASE A LICENSE, TAG, OR PERMIT; ENTER A CONTROLLED HUNT DRAWING; and SUBMIT A HUNTER REPORT.

The screenshot shows the user account menu with three main sections: YOUR ACCOUNT, LICENSES, PERMITS, TAGS & APPLICATIONS, and HELP & SUPPORT. The 'Controlled Hunts' option in the 'LICENSES, PERMITS, TAGS & APPLICATIONS' section is circled in red, with a red arrow pointing to it from the text block below.

For most big game hunters, perhaps the most important feature is the Controlled Hunt lookup!
Click here to see if you successfully drew a tag or tags for the upcoming hunting season!

Under the Hunt Choice status you'll see the word "Selected" (you're a winner!) or "Not Selected" (try again next year)
